Department Mission:

To promote and enforce merit-based personnel practices to support a high-quality County workforce and public trust in effective County government. To ensure public confidence that Milwaukee County government acts with the highest integrity and in the public interest. The department strives to assure fair and impartial due process hearings for the suspension, demotion, or discharge of County employees in the classified service as provided by law.

Department Description:

Personnel Review Board and Civil Service Commission Description: Chapter 63 of the Wisconsin State Statutes establishes Milwaukee County's Civil Service System, which is carried out by the Civil Service Commission ("Commission") and the Personnel Review Board ("PRB"). The Commission and the PRB are separate, quasi-independent entities that each consist of five citizen members who are appointed by the County Executive and confirmed by the County Board of Supervisors.

Ethics Board Description: The Milwaukee County Ethics Board is the primary source of interpretation of the Milwaukee County Ethics Code, and it is supported by two to three staff members who also support the Personnel Review Board and Civil Service Commission. The Ethics Board provides advisory opinions; assesses potential ethical issues; provides periodic government ethics education; and enforces the Ethics Code through investigation, hearings, and resolution processes.

Major Changes in FY 2023

Following the development of the new online filing system for Statements of Economic Interest in late-2021/early-2022, the office has no major changes anticipated for 2023.

Strategic Overview:

Chapter 33 of the Milwaukee County General Ordinances delegates certain statutory duties of the Civil Service Commission to the PRB. The PRB provides a quasi-judicial forum in which to hear disciplinary suspensions, demotions, or discharges from classified County service; to review grievance appeals under Chapter 17.205 of the Milwaukee County Ordinances; and to ensure the proper execution of County civil service rules, policies, and procedures.

Strategic Implementation:

The 2023 Budget reflects the relative consistency in volume of charges for employee disciplinary matters and continued levels of service, training, and outreach. The 2023 Budget for the Personnel Review Board maintains its five part-time non-County employee Board members as well as its high level of service.

Strategic Overview:

The 2023 Civil Service Commission is comprised of five members. Appointments are made based on recognized and demonstrated interest in and knowledge of the problems of civil service. The Commission meets bimonthly to hear the Hearing Examiner's recommendations, if any, concerning the suspension, demotion, or discharge of County employees and to make its determination. The Commission also hears requests to move certain positions within the County from classified to unclassified status (and vice versa) as well as requests concerning changes to the Civil Service System.

Department: PRB, CSC, ETHICS

AGENCY NO. 112 FUND: General — 10001

Strategic Implementation:

The Civil Service Commission primarily conducts hearings on merit system violations by Behavioral Health Services (BHS) employees and exercises administrative control over the merit system, including promulgation of the Civil Service Rules. Since 2014, BHS has been governed by an independent Mental Health Board, and suspensions and/or discharges of BHS employees are now heard by the Commission instead of the PRB. Most of the budget is devoted to legal fees for outside counsel and hearing examiners.

Strategic Overview:

The Ethics Board is comprised of six members, each from a different nominating authority leading a longstanding, broad-based Milwaukee County entity interested in good government and institutional integrity. The Board meets on a quarterly basis (with special meetings scheduled as needed) to interpret the Ethics Code, provide formal advice via Advisory Opinions, develop educational materials, and investigate ethics complaints.

StrategicImplementation:

The 2023 Budget is focused on continuing to provide high levels of service, insight, and outreach to County employees, officials, and the public in an efficient manner.
